FLED IN THEIR NIGHT CLOTHES

I. L. Sadler and Family, of Hunting-ton Township, Awake to Find their Home in Flames. Escape while All is Lost.

Awakened by smoke and flames which were rapidly pouring through their home in Huntingdon township Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Sadler and their two year old daughter were compelled to flee in their night clothing about three o'clock this morning while their home and all its contents burned to the ground. They had time only to put on shoes and in their thin garments were compelled to travel through the bitter cold to the nearest neighbor's house a quarter mile away.

What caused the fire is not known but it is supposed to have started either from an overheated stove or a defective flue. The flames had gained great headway when the family were awakened and by the time they had secured shoes one stairway had been consumed. Fortunately there was another in the house and by this they descended to the first floor and then into the open.

The house was too far gone for any attempt whatever to be made to save any of the furniture and, carrying their little girl, the parents made their way as rapidly as possible to shelter.

Fortunately the fire did not spread to any of the other buildings on the farm. Coming in the dead of night few people knew anything of it until morning though several persons in the vicinity of Gardner saw the blaze but did not go to the fire as it was hard to ascertain its exact locality.

Mr. Sadler lives on the old Sadler farm in Huntingdon township near Meals' Cross Roads. His neighbors and friends will take care of him and his family until some provision can be made for erecting another home.

BLACK'S HOME BURNS

"Brookie," the famous old mansion of Judge Jeremiah Black and more recently the residence of C. Elmer Smith, a wealthy York manufacturer, was burned to the ground Friday night, piling fresh misfortune upon its owner, who on Christmas evening drove his automobile into a street car, from which resulted the death of his eldest son, C. Elmer Smith. The younger son, still in a serious condition from injuries sustained at the same time, was removed in his bed from the burning building Friday night.

"Brookie," situated imposingly upon a hill about a mile south of York during the tenancy of the famous Secretary of State and Supreme Court Justice, and his son, the late Lieutenant Governor Chauncey F. Black, had sheltered many illustrious men, among them the late President Garfield and Admiral Farragut.

Four chemical engines sent from York were powerless to stay the flames in the high wind.

ALARM OF FIRE

An alarm of fire was sounded about eight o'clock Friday evening just when the wind was blowing its fiercest and the thermometers had dropped close to the zero mark. The fire company and many people turned out quickly to find that the alarm had been turned in by some one who had seen sparks issuing from the chimney at the home of Harvey Hansford on West street.

The chimney had caught fire and the blaze was extinguished with chemicals brought up on the hook and ladder truck.

TRAIL GROWING COLDER

Emmitsburg Chronicle—The trial of the yeggmen who cracked the postoffice safe last week is not any too warm. Inspectors and detectives as a rule are not the most communicative men and while rumors of clues are thick nothing real has taken place that could be told to the public. One report that persists is that a Taneytown man, known to the authorities of county, worked the trick with help of an expert.

SURPRISE PARTY

A very enjoyable surprise party was given at the home of Mrs. George B. Hoover, Bendersville, on Friday evening in honor of Miss Ruth Palmer of Harrisburg. Quite a number of guests from Bendersville and vicinity were present. Refreshments were served and various games lent to the evening's enjoyment.

$50.00 REWARD: I will pay a reward of fifty dollars for information that will lead to the conviction of any person who furnishes intoxicating liquors to minors or persons of known intemperate habits in Biglerville, Arendtsville or Bendersville boroughs, or Butler or Menallen townships. C. L. Longdorf.

PROSPECTS FOR COMING YEAR

Gettysburg will have Different Sort of a Tourist Season from Last Year which was the Dullest for a Long Time.

With the memories of one of the dullest summers Gettysburg has had for many years indelibly impressed upon their minds many of the business people of town are asking what better may be expected in 1912 and, after going over things, the general opinion seems to be that a profitable season is ahead.

First of all Gettysburg hopes and believes that the biennial division encampment of the National Guard will be held here as in every even year for a long period. The land formerly occupied is now understood to be unavailable but this has not caused Guard officials to give up Gettysburg as a site and several other locations near town have been viewed with considerable approbation by those in whose hands lies the selection of a campsite. If the division encampment does not come this year it will be a matter of surprise, as well as regret, to most of the business people here.

There has been talk at more or less frequent intervals of the maneuver camp, which is well remembered by Gettysburgians, returning to this place this summer but nothing authoritative can be learned on this subject and probabilities are strongly against the camp being located at this place.

In June the state encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic with its two women's auxiliaries, the Women's Relief Corps and the Ladies of the G. A. R., will be held in Gettysburg. The town is thoroughly acquainted with the benefit which is always derived from this attraction. Unfortunately the last time the encampment was held here it rained almost the entire week and the attendance was not so large as usual. With fair weather the event is always one of the big attractions of the year.

Few dedications and events of a similar nature seem to be forecasted for the coming summer.

The Sedgwick monument will be completed ready for unveiling before the year is far advanced, according to present plans. Whether or not the new Lincoln monument in the National Cemetery will be formally dedicated has not been announced. According to present plans the eight statues to be placed on the new Pennsylvania monument will not be formally unveiled.

Among the conventions booked at the present time are the state Order of Independent Americans and the state Mothers' Congress. Each of these is expected to bring several hundred people to town for a stay of several days.

Several smaller gatherings, regimental reunions and so forth, are also listed while applications for hotel bookings indicate the customary number of personally conducted tourist parties.

LAUNDRY AGAIN SOLD

William Rex, fifteen years with Dougherty and Hartley, on Friday evening purchased the Gettysburg Steam Laundry from Luther Deatruck who recently bought it from Murray E. Long. Mr. Rex will sever his connection with Dougherty and Hartley on Monday and will assume personal charge of the business at the laundry.

He takes up his new enterprise with best wishes for success from the firm with which he has been pleasantly connected for so long a time.

APPOINTED AIDE

Lieutenant H. G. Bonebrake, of Waynesboro, well known here, has received the appointment of aide de camp on the staff of the Grand Army of the United States of America and has received the honor badge to be worn at the encampment which will meet in Los Angeles, California, in September 1912. The badge is wrought from the captured Confederate cannons, and is a very pretty emblem. Mr. Bonebrake may probably attend the Los Angeles encampment.

FOR SUPREME BENCH

A despatch from Washington to the Philadelphia Press says: "Ex-Judge John W. Bittenger, of York, Pa., was recommended to President Taft by Congressman Lafean, for appointment to the United States Supreme bench. Judge Bittenger served for 21 years in the local courts of York county and is recognized as a jurist of unusual ability and learning."

SPECIAL sale at Thomas Brothers, Biglerville, will continue Monday and Tuesday.

FOR RENT: two houses on York street. All conveniences. Apply Mrs. Mary Miller, 227 Baltimore street.

FRATERNITY'S ANNUAL DANCE

Pretty Affair Held in Glatfelter Hall which had been Decorated for the Occasion. Many Guests Present.

The annual midwinter dance of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity of college was held on Friday evening in Glatfelter Hall with about sixty present.

Holly and pine in profusion were used to decorate the dance hall which was at its best. Two long strings of holly were stretched almost the entire length of the large room while pine branches were used about the walls. The College Orchestra, who furnished the music, were seated back of a bank of pines.

The supper which was served by Mrs. Miller was one of the features of the evening, taking place in the Greek room where long tables had been decorated with lavender and pink, the fraternity colors, and with candles. The two rooms made as pretty an appearance as at any time since the building was first used for affairs of this sort.

Those present were, Miss Katherine Duncan, Miss Frances Sheely, Miss Marian Sheely, Miss Irene Granville, Miss Rachael Granville, Miss Frances McClean, Miss Jeanne Sieler, Miss Mary Slaybaugh, Miss Elizabeth VanCleave, Miss Amy Swope, Miss Helen Kendlehart, Miss Bernadette Thomas, Miss Mary Duttera, Miss Nellie Weaver, Miss Martha Dickinson, Miss Rachael Skelly, of Gettysburg; Miss Elizabeth Hersch, New Oxford; Miss Nellie Fackler, York; Miss Ritter, Allentown; Miss Gladys VanCleave, Kansas City, Mo. Gettysburg Chapter; Messrs. Lehman, Beetem, Rinn, Heller, King, Albert, Steele, Hoy, Dapp, Bittler, Hollinger, Patterson, Keller, Geesey, Storb, Bok, Franklin and Marshall Chapter, Messrs. Langsinger and Henneberg Dickinson Chapter, Messrs. Gross, Wagner and McAnney; of the local alumni, C. S. Duncan, Paul A. Martin, Jonas K. Robb, W. A. McClean, Prof. Moser, Dr. W. A. Granville was the guest of honor.

The patronesses were, Mrs. John F. Dapp, Harrisburg; Mrs. C. S. Duncan, Mrs. W. A. McClean, Mrs. W. A. Granville, Mrs. Paul A. Martin, Mrs. J. K. Robb.

DIES AT AGE OF 92

Levi Lauer, one of the oldest citizens of York county, died at his home, near Houcks' mill, West Manheim township, at 10:40 o'clock Thursday night, having within six days reached the age of 92 years. Mr. Lauer was highly esteemed as a neighbor and friend. For some years he and his wife lived with their daughter, Miss Malinda Lauer.

He is survived by his wife and ten children—three sons and seven daughters.

Funeral Monday, January 8. Brief services at the house at 9 a. m. and further services and interment made at St. David's (Sherman's) church, Rev. J. H. Hartman officiating.

Funeral Monday morning 9:30 at the house, with services at the Methodist church, Littlestown, at 10 o'clock, Rev. W. Edward Watkins officiating.

NEW PASTOR

The Rev. Dr. William H. Washington, superintendent of the Pennsylvania Conference of the United Brethren Church, has appointed the Rev. L. E. Miller, of Swissvale, pastor of the Mont Alto charge, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the Rev. M. J. Heberly. The new pastor will preach at Quincy next Sabbath morning and at Mont Alto in the evening. His appointment to the charge dates from January 1.

ZERO WEATHER

Zero was registered officially in Gettysburg this morning by Colonel E. B. Cope's thermometer. On Friday morning's sixth degree was registered and this morning goes on record as being the coldest of the winter. Many local thermometers went below the zero figure by a few degrees and on all sides people hurried along wearing all the winter clothing they could find.

PAUL GILMORE COMING

"The Mummy and the Humming Bird," one of the most noted plays and now in its 10th successful season, will come to the Wizard Theatre, Thursday evening, January 11. The play itself has an unusual plot and a striking nay, startling bit of dramatic work is introduced in the first act when Lord Lumley invites an Italian organ grinder to dine with him and induces the latter to tell his story, though neither understands the language of the other. A well balanced company has been selected which is headed by Mr. Paul Gilmore, who is playing the leading character, Lord Lumley, "The Mummy." The attraction is one of the best that will be seen in this town this season.

Typewriters, Blackboards and Office Furniture for Sale

As about all of my time is taken up with my duties at the bank, I have decided to close my school. I have a number of Smith Premier, Remington and Underwood Typewriters for sale at my school room in Gettysburg. These will go at about half price. Two of them are practically new machines. Also, two fine blackboards, two oak highly polished library or office tables, 3ft. x 6ft., 12 oak plank bottom chairs suitable for library or dining room. 3 typewriter desks, 3 revolving chairs, lamps, typewriter ribbons, etc.

This is a chance to get some good office furniture, typewriters, etc., at a very small cost, or for some one to open a shorthand school, at very little expense. Have had forty nine students during the past three years which goes to show that the location is good. SCHOOL BOARDS in need of BLACKBOARDS should see these. I KILLED, 4 HURT WHEN STACK FALLS

Gust of Wind at Coatesville
Blows Down Structure.

Coatesville, Pa., Jan. 6.—The high wind carried down a large smokestack that was being repaired at the plant of the Lukens Iron and Steel company here, killing one man and injuring four others, one of whom is expected to die.

The man killed is Winfield Curry, fifty years old.
The injured are: David Brown, badly crushed, man died; Harry Dunlap, head and shoulders injured and collarbone broken; Frank Rogers, head and shoulder injured and leg crushed; Fred Jones, head, back and shoulder injured.

The stack, which was about ninety feet high and lined with brick, was slightly out of plumb. A new foundation was being put in in order to straighten the stack, when a gust of wind caught it and hurled it to the ground.

In its descent the stack caught a large crane and then crashed through the roof of a cold foundry building adjoining the steel mill, crushing the five men in the foundry. None of the men working on the foundation of the stack was injured.

Pomona Grange Asks Court to Make Order on Saloons.

Bloomington, Pa., Jan. 6.—Action was taken at the meeting of Pomona Grange, composed of the subordinate granges of Columbia and lower Luzerne counties, which, if acted favorably upon by the court at the coming session of the license court, will revolutionize the license business in Columbia county.

The resolution, introduced by William T. Crossy, master of the state grange, and unanimously adopted, was to the effect that this court be asked to make an order prohibiting treating at the bars and stopping the sale of bottled goods over the bar.

The resolution calls upon the court not to grant any licenses except to those agreeing to those conditions and will ask the court to grant no more licenses.

COLD WILL LAST UNTIL TOMORROW

Forecaster Says Weather Will Soon Moderate.

MUCH SUFFERING EVERYWHERE

Freezing Weather Blankets Entire
Eastern Section of the Country.
Middle West Also Suffers.

Philadelphia, Jan. 6.—"The cold spell will continue all of today and tonight, and the thermometer may register as low as five degrees above zero. The weather may moderate some on Sunday, but last night was the most disagreeable during the entire cold spell. Tonight will be almost as cold, but will not be as disagreeable or windy."

This was the statement made by Weather Forecaster George S. Bliss. The coldest weather for two years prevailed throughout the middle states yesterday and last night, when the thermometer descended to within eight degrees of the zero point. There was a fall of about two degrees to the hour throughout yesterday until 7 o'clock, when the mercury became practically stationary at nine degrees above, and from that point it fell one degree an hour before midnight.

Not only is this the coldest weather experienced in this vicinity since the winter of 1909 and 1910, but it was the coldest wave that has visited that portion of North America north of a line running east and west through Indianapolis and east of the Rocky mountains. In some points of the Canadian northwest the extremely low temperature of 42 degrees below zero was reached, while at Duluth, the coldest point in the United States, the official reading yesterday morning was 35 below.

Six Below in Chicago.

Chicago, Jan. 6.—Chicago shivered before the icest blast that has visited the city in two years. Zero weather for the first time has visited this city in two years. Zero weather for the first time this winter came before a driving northwest wind, that continued to send the mercury downward until six degrees below zero was reached. The cold wave throughout the middle west has claimed the lives of thirty-five persons in four days. Deaths were reported from nearly every state in the middle west, and no relief is in sight.

Coldest Winter in New York City.

New York, Jan. 6.—The coldest weather of the winter swept upon New York on the wings of a gale howling down from the northwest at forty-eight miles an hour. The mercury attained its lowest point when the thermometer at the United States weather bureau registered 11 degrees above zero. Then it began an almost imperceptible climb.

Baltimore, Jan. 6.—With the wind blowing a gale the thermometer here registered 14 degrees above zero. For the first time this winter all the ponds about Baltimore were frozen over.

Virginia Shivers Before Cold Wave.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 6.—Nine above zero, a drop of some twenty degrees, made Richmond shiver. This is the first biting cold of the winter, and there is some suffering. The entire state is in the grasp of an unusually cold spell.

Georgia Feels Cold Wave.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 6.—Atlanta and a large territory surrounding is shivering in bitter cold which came after a week of rain. Thermometers here registered 23 degrees.

40 BELOW AT WRECK

Three Killed and Others Suffered Severely From Intense Cold.

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 6.—Three persons lost their lives in a wreck of an eastbound express on the Canadian Pacific Railway company's Boston-Wisconsin branch, near Wawota, Sask. The injured suffered severely, as the thermometer was 40 degrees below zero, and a gale swept the prairie.

The dead are J. Richardson, brakeman; J. T. Sampson, passenger; L. Giffert, passenger. A number of passengers were injured.

Dr. Blue to Be Surgeon General.

Washington, Jan. 6.—President Taft will send to the senate the nomination of Dr. Rupert Blue, of South Carolina, as surgeon general of the public health and marine hospital service, succeeding the late Dr. Walter Wyman. Dr. Blue has been connected with the marine hospital service for years.

Navy Yard Machinists Win Fight.
Norfolk, Va., Jan. 6.—All of the machinists at the Norfolk navy yard, who walked out after refusing to sign time cards under which it was charged that the Taylor system was being enforced, returned to work. The cards were withdrawn.

TWO BANDITS ROB MAIL CAR

Bind and Gag Clerks and Act in Their Place.

Redding, Cal., Jan. 6.—The mail car of the Oregon express on the Southern Pacific was robbed of all eastern registered mail by two unmasked men.

Three mail clerks were bound and gagged by the robbers.
The train pulled into Redding and the robbers, carrying their loot, dropped off and escaped.

When the train stopped at Red Bluff, thirty-five miles south of Redding, mail sacks were thrown out and others taken on. One of the three mail clerks was about to leave the car, when the two bandits moved past him into the car and closed the door.

"What's up?" exclaimed Charles J. Racin, a clerk.

"This is a hold-up," coolly responded one of the men, covering the trio with a revolver. Rhein, Robert B. Warner and their assistant were bound and gagged by the second bandit.

When the train reached Cottonwood, seventeen miles north of Red Bluff, the bandits acted as mail clerks in exchanging mail, without arousing suspicion. At Anderson, five miles further, they repeated the performance, showing familiarity with the clerks' duties.

BURY "FIGHTING BOB" WITH SIGNAL HONORS

President and Army and Navy
Men Attend Funeral.

Washington, Jan. 6.—President Taft, members of his cabinet, Admiral Dewey, practically every naval officer on duty in Washington and many prominent officials attended the funeral of Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans. The obsequies were marked with full military honors.

An unusual tribute was paid to the memory of Admiral Evans by Emperor William of Germany. As the special representatives of the emperor, Commander Reimann, the German naval attaché, attended the funeral and placed a wreath on the bier of the admiral, who had been intimately known by the emperor.

The body was transferred from the family home to All Souls' Unitarian church, the casket being wrapped in a rear admiral's flag and the Stars and Stripes. The services were conducted by President Taft's pastor, Rev. U. G. B. Pierce. During the services the famous "Paul Revere" bell, which rang out a warning to the minute men for the first battle of the Revolution, was tolled.

Mrs. Evans, the admiral's widow, was sufficiently recovered from the shock attendant upon the admiral's death to permit of her attendance at the funeral. She came on the arm of her son, Lieutenant Commander Frank T. Evans. In the carriage with the widow and her son were Mrs. C. C. Marsh and Mrs. H. I. Sewell, her two daughters.

As a mark of special respect orders were issued that every American war ship reachable shall half-mast their flags for the next three days.

THREE DESKS STOLEN

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Court House Mysteriously Robbed.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Jan. 6.—Upon opening the court house the new board of county commissioners discovered that three costly desks were missing from the office.

They were removed during the night and some of the important papers they contained are also missing. Although there is a force of men at work about the court house during the whole night no one saw the desks being removed.

The county commissioners offered a reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the thieves.

To Restrict Red Cross Movements.

Washington, Jan. 6.—Only in cases of great emergency are the Red Cross nurses and workers to be allowed at the front in time of war, under the terms of a proclamation issued by the president and published by the war department. The Red Cross people must be confined to hospitals at the base of operations or on board hospital ships and along lines of communication.

Trappers and Fur Buyers

Don't sell your furbearing skins before getting my prices. I can pay you more than you can get anywhere else as I ship direct to the London market.

Write, telephone or bring them to my house, I am home all day Saturdays and Mondays, other days between seven in the evening and eight in the morning.

Also buy all kinds of hides, tallow, wool and feathers.

Will pay 1 cent per pound more than anyone else.

Am still in the junk business and buy junk of any nature whatever. Remember I always do what I say.

New Jersey Jurist Mentioned For United States Supreme Court.

Washington, Jan. 6.—Surely court gossip again was favorable to Judge Francis J. Swayze, of New Jersey, as one of the leading candidates for appointment to succeed Justice Harlan.

Judge Hook, of Kansas, is by no means out of it. His friends believe the president will not name another, in spite of the opposition. The indications are, however, that the opposition to Hook is having some effect.

The men named as being in the lead for the place are Judge Swayze, Judge Hook and Interstate Commerce Commissioner Franklin K. Lane.

The word "fizzle" is not properly applied to those who would and cannot reach a given standard, but those who could do better than they do, but will not. No blame attaches in the former case, but much does in the latter.

Gray Hair Makes You Look Old.

Use Sage and Sulphur and Your Gray Hairs Will Vanish.

Gray hair is a mark of age, and nothing that can be said as to its beauty will offset the disadvantages of this mark of age set upon your brow.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy darkens the hair and restores it to its youthful beauty. Our grandmothers and their grandmothers before them used sage and sulphur for darkening their hair. Nothing has ever been found more effective for this purpose than these two time-honored remedies, but Wyeth, a modern chemist, has combined the two with other ingredients, which makes a delightful dressing for the hair, and which not only removes every trace of dandruff but promotes the growth of the hair. It also stops the hair from falling out, and makes it beautiful.

All druggists are authorized to refund the money if it fails to do exactly as represented.

Don't neglect your hair and don't resort to old-time hair dyes. Get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist to-day, and notice the difference in your hair after a few days' use.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. People's Drug Store special agent for Gettysburg, Pa.

RELIGION IS HIS BUSINESS

Preacher Knows How It Should Be Transacted and Does It Better Than Others.

In this new movement it is interesting to note the cavalier way in which "business men" give the preachers the back seat. It is as if these committees said, "Now you clergymen are the best of fellows, but you are ignorant of business methods. It is high time religion and business principles applied to it. All that is needed is to take right hold of this thing, the empty pew, and run it as we run one of our corporations. Business is business, and these pews can be filled. A factory with a good product only needs business skill to get its product on the market. Now watch us do it."

Now the preacher's business is religion. Why not let him transact it? He has transacted it up to this time. For centuries he has been miserably paid. He is often old and pensioned with a pittance, and many of the "business men" seem not to care. The old-fashioned preacher, in his old-fashioned ways, gave this country a good religious result. That is the way we seem to remember our fathers and mothers as we see them, in adoring memory, sitting in the far-away pews. We doubt if "business men with business methods," a la corporation, factory-running, double entry and money in the bank, will do better.

It strikes us that religion applied to business is more the need of the hour than business applied to religion.—New York Mail.

Chance for Profit.

Considering the accommodations the young doctor thought the rental asked for the office exorbitant. He enumerated the drawbacks: no sun shine, limited space, stuffy elevator, threadbare and insufficient furniture.

The agent listened in tolerant silence, then he turned and looked out of the window at the frenzied crowds dodging to protect life and limb from the onslaughts of trucks and four different car lines that crossed at that corner.

"Yes, sir," he said, "I admit all that, but just look at the opportunity for accidents."

ACCUSED OF MAIL FRAUDS

Prominent Men Involved in Shady Mining Deals.

MADE $1,200,000 OUT OF IT

Julian Hawthorne, Former Mayor Quincy, of Boston, and Others Plead Not Guilty.

New York, Jan. 6.—Julian Hawthorne, son of Nathaniel Hawthorne, and a writer who switched his pen from novels to mining literature a few years ago, appeared with ex-Mayor Quincy, of Boston, who was assistant secretary of state under Cleveland, and the others associated with them in a number of Canadian projects, before Judge Hough, in the criminal branch of the United States district court, and pleaded not guilty to five indictments charging them with using the mails to defraud.

The others indicted with Hawthorne and Quincy are Albert Freeman, a promoter; Dr. William J. Morton, a nerve specialist; and John C. McKinnon, secretary-treasurer of most of the companies which the defendants are charged with organizing.

All are charged with misuse of the mails in scheme to defraud investors in the stock of mining enterprises.

The Continental Syndicate, Limited, was the corporation which it is charged was organized to exploit the three leading companies, the first of which was organized in 1908. They were the Fernagani Cobalt Mines, Limited, with a capital stock of $3,000,000 from which the government men who have charge of the case say $700,000 was made by the promoters; the Elk Lake Cobalt Mines, Limited, with a capital stock of $1,000,000, and which is said to have cleared $225,000; and the Montreal-James Mines, Limited, with a capital stock of $1,000,000, on which the profits are estimated at $125,000.

These were Maine corporations, and their Delaware sister, the Hawthorne Silver and Iron Mines, Limited, is held up as the most profitable of all. The district attorney's office believes $1,200,000 was made out of it.

The Julian Hawthorne company was the selling agency from which stocks were sold to the public at from 30 to 50 cents a share.

The indictments say that there were never any profitable mining properties owned by these companies. The conspiracy to defraud which is charged consisted in trying to convince prospective buyers that they owned mines of the same character as in the silver producing mines of the Cobalt region. One of the properties was located fifty miles from this district, another forty miles and another "several miles" distant. In some cases, run the charges, a hole had been dug, and once an old iron mine from which the ore had been taken out years before was exploited as a valuable concession.

All of the men who appeared in court pleaded not guilty, with permission to withdraw their pleas next Wednesday after their lawyers have had a chance to read the indictments. Later they furnished bail before Commissioner Shields. In Freeman's case $25,000 was set and in the others $10,000.

GIVE JEWELS FOR MISSIONS

Women Sacrifice Personal Belongings to Wipe Out $10,000 Debt.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 6.—Women of the Southern Presbyterian church are sending their jewels and other valuable personal belongings to the foreign mission board here to wipe out its $100,000 indebtedness.

Grave danger of the recall of foreign missionaries faced the loyal women of the church to meet the deficit. There was prompt response in the shape of jewelry, silver ornaments and money. A committee is disposing of the gifts as rapidly as possible and forwarding the proceeds to mission aries.

Silage For Ewes.

In the wintering of pregnant ewes the safety of a large, lone ration of silage with grain has not been definitely worked out, although the Iowa station had some good results the past year by feeding silage alone with a grain ration of oats and bran. Where silage and cottonseed meal were fed cottonseed meal furnishing the necessary protein and, by the way, silage needs considerable protein to balance it up the ration did not produce as good results. Although the lambs were quite strong at birth and showed vigor, they revealed a tendency to have smaller bone than lambs produced upon a ration containing some clover hay.—Iowa Agriculturist.

Sheep as Producers.

Sheep are economical producers. They can make a pound of mutton from less grain than can a hog or steer to make pork and beef. It has been estimated that a lamb can make 100 pounds of gain on 100 to 150 pounds less feed than a pig. On the average cattle require 800 pounds of grain to produce 100 pounds of gain, hogs 400 pounds and sheep 250 pounds.

Selecting the Breeders.

When deciding which gifts to save for breeders count the test development, and choose the sows who have eight or more on a side. Close observers agree that this is an unfailing indication of breeders of large litters.

An English chef, M. Soyer, is credited with having discovered the method of cooking in paper bags, which just now is receiving much notice in newspapers and magazines. The points claimed for this new method of cooking are a preservation of the flavors of things cooked and doing away with the washing of so many greasy pans and kettles.

18TH WISCONSIN AT SHILOH

Six Days After Leaving Its State New, Inexperienced Regiment Engaged in Famous Battle.

On March 30, 1862, the Eighteenth Wisconsin left Milwaukee and proceeded to Pittsburg Landing and became a part of General Grant's force, which, six days from the time the new, inexperienced regiment left its state, one of the great battles of the war began, that of Shiloh, writes Lieut. Col. J. A. Watrous in the Milwaukee Sentinel. The Eighteenth reached Pittsburg Landing on April 5, and was placed with the division of Gen. B. M. Prentiss, which occupied the most advanced position of any troops in the line. The soldiers put up their tents, but their rations having run out they went to bed hungry, as a great many others did during the war.

Early the next morning the pickets in front of Prentiss' division were driven in. The Eighteenth did splendid service in that, its first battle, fighting like veterans. Thirty were killed and 95 wounded, many of the latter dying.

One hundred and seventy-five of the men and ten or twelve of the officers were made prisoners at the time the most of General Prentiss' division was captured. Yet there were enough left to make a body of 250 to participate in the second day's battle, which resulted in driving back the enemy and giving Grant a victory.

The Eighteenth was in MacArthur's division, and but for the fact that Gen. Charles S. Hamilton's successful attack of the enemy at luka, would have been in that battle. Hamilton defeated the enemy before MacArthur's division reached the field. The regiment was constantly on duty, participated in various raids, burned bridges and destroyed railroads. It had important work in connection with the battle of Corinth, in October, 1862, and was given another opportunity to show its good mettle. In this engagement it lost five killed and 21 wounded. It was on the reserve at the battle of Champion Hills, but had several killed and a number wounded. The regiment acted as sharpshooters during a portion of the Vicksburg campaign, losing ten killed and seven wounded. After the capture of Vicksburg it remained there until September 11, going from there to Helena, Ark. It joined Grant at Chattanooga on November 19, 1863, having marched 250 miles through Mississippi, Alabama and a portion of Tennessee to do so.

The Eighteenth took part in the battle of Mission Ridge, and joined in the pursuit of the enemy so far as Ringgold, Ga. It was on duty at Huntsville, Ala., until May 1, 1864, when it joined Sherman in his great campaign from Chattanooga to Atlanta. The Eighteenth was one of the regiments at Altoona, Pa., and helped to fight the battle bearing that name and it is said that no troops of that small force fought more valiantly than the Wisconsin soldiers. That was the battle which brought out the remark by Sherman, "Hold the fort, for I am coming." The Confederates fought persistently for that pass, and though the Union force was small the enemy left 1,500 killed and wounded. The Eighteenth had some killed and wounded here.

The Eighteenth re-enlisted, but was unable to take advantage of the thirty-day furlough until the following November. In January, 1865, it returned to Chattanooga, and in time was sent to General Sherman's army in the Carolinas.

The Eighteenth had three different colonels, J. S. Alban, killed at Shiloh; Gabriel Bouck, resigned on January 4, 1864; and Charles H. Jackson, who was mustered out at the end of the war. Its first adjutant was the late Judge Gilbert S. Park of Stevens Point Park afterward became captain of company G, and served until the end of the war. Another captain of the Eighteenth was the late State Senator William J. Kershaw. He remained with the regiment a short time and went out as a major with one of the later companies.

Impossibility. "Does your wife ever attend your lectures?" "Of course not, that would never do." "Why not?" "Could any wife sit and hear her husband talk for two hours without interrupting him?"

An Inquiry. "Pop, when the rain comes down in sheets—" "Yes, son?" "Does it cover the bed of the street?"

BUTTER PRODUCTION.

What a Little Thinking Has Done For the Dairyman.

The average farmer has but little idea. We are convinced, of the wide difference there is in cows or in the systems of management, says Hoard's Dairyman. Wherever we have taken cow censuses the farmers were greatly surprised at the difference in results as between different herds. That shows that to the mind of the average farmer the yield per cow or per head is, as he supposes, about the same. Yet it is quite common to find one herd making double or more than double the clear profit that one may be on an adjoining farm.

Even on experiment station farms, where everything is supposed to be done scientifically, they demonstrate a wonderful difference in cows.

The Minnesota station found cows in its herd which returned $55.54, while alongside of them other cows returned only $8.19 after deducting the cost of feed, which was the same in each case.

The Michigan station found its cows varied from $8.18 to $94.05 after the feed cost was reckoned. The New Jersey station shows that, calling milk worth $1 per hundredweight, its cows varied from 13 cents profit to $49.72. The Connecticut station figures show a difference as between the poorest and the best cows of $2.76 to $54.72.

Now, there are thousands of farmers who are keeping these low paying cows and don't know it. Something is the matter, but they don't know what. They know that they are getting mighty little out of their cows.

We can see by this how necessary it is to have an inquiring mind. The right kind of farmer will not sit down under such conditions. He will set to work to change them, and the first thing he will do will be to buy a registered bull of some breeder he can trust. That right sort of spirit has changed whole counties in Wisconsin over from farmers whose cows averaged 140 pounds of butter per cow per year to an average for the whole county of 250 pounds per cow.

But the minds of these farmers were stirred by dairy reading and thinking before the change was made. A hundred pounds more of butter a year per cow make a big difference in the fortune of the farmer.

Color of Jerseys. The American Jersey Cattle club makes no distinction between solid color or Jersey cattle and those of broken color—that is, those showing more or less white. It is true, however, that a good many people prefer the cattle of solid color, but more or less white does not indicate that the animal is not pure bred, and any one who would reject a Jersey simply on account of broken color would exhibit very poor judgment indeed.

Proper Feeding Essential. Feeding all of the cows in the same way is treating them unfairly and cheating yourself. Remember that each cow has an appetite of her own and that each one varies in capacity.
